Pre-reading Questions

What do you usually do on Christmas Day? Why is Christmas so important to some people?

Scrooge is rich<sup>6</sup>, and he is mean to his clerk, Cratchit. He doesn't pay<sup>7</sup> him very much.

3

That night, Scrooge's old friend Marley visits him—but Marley has been dead for years. It's his ghost! The ghost speaks<sup>8</sup> to Scrooge. "My dear old friend, you must change. Treat<sup>9</sup> others better, Scrooge," Marley says. "Three more ghosts will visit you tonight. Listen to them, and try to become a better person<sup>10</sup>."
