

For Asia's readers who want to know

www.ainoscoebooks.com

Stretch your acquisition budget in the major categories

Gain access via Ainosco eBooks, as the world's top research university libraries do, to over 20,000 titles from a prodigious assortment of more than 50 creative and innovative mid-sized publishers in the major humanities categories of fiction, history, political science, social science, education and business & economics.

These include:

- SAGE Publications
- Europa Editions
- Berghan Books
- Barrett-Koehler Publishers
- BenBella Books
- Encounter Books
- Coffee House Press
- Dalkey Archive Press
- Bellevue Literary Press
- Hurst

AINOSCO eBooks—Great selection of good reads to narrow the knowledge gap

Higher education research libraries and public libraries throughout Asia can now provide their user community with access to tens of thousands of e-book titles in several languages from publishers in North America, Europe and Africa via Asia's most innovative e-book service, Ainosco eBooks.

This new e-book platform offers a wide selection of titles featuring a prodigious core of in-demand academic publications from 30 the top research university publishing houses of the world's leading research universities and institutions, such as:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Stanford University Press | Brookings Institution Press |
| Cornell University Press | Amsterdam University Press |
| University of California Press | Georgetown University Press |
| Columbia University Press | American Library Association |

Ainosco eBooks—bringing the most creative and compelling cohort of publications to Asia, and Asia's best-kept secret of important in-language publications to the rest of the world.

For more information, contact us at customer_service@ainoscoebooks.com, or speak with your usual Airiti sales representative.

