Conversation 4 At the Airport

Introduction:
Henry has arrived at the airport for his flight. He needs to exchange money then find the check-in counter and departure gate.

Dialogue:
Henry: Excuse me, can you tell me where the check-in counter is?
Staff: It's across from the ticket agent, just to your left.
Henry: Thanks.
Henry: Hi, I'd like to exchange Taiwanese dollars for American dollars.
Clerk: Sure. How much would you like to change?
Henry: NTS10,000.
Clerk: OK. May I see your passport?
Henry: No problem. Here you are.
Clerk: Now for NTS10,000 that will be US$270.35. How would you like the money?

Introduction:
Brad goes to a bank to open a new bank account.

Dialogue:
Clerk: Hi, can I help you?
Brad: Yes, I need to open an account.
Clerk: You'll need to go to the customer service desk. They can help you. It's right over there.
Brad: Okay, thanks.
Service: Good afternoon, sir. What can I do for you?
Brad: I want to open an account here.
Service: No problem. There are a couple of forms you'll have to fill out.
Brad: Okay.
Service: I'll also need some identification: your driver's license and social security card.
Brad: Here they are.
Service: This is your current address and telephone number?

Conversation 2 Business Introductions

Introduction:
Rod and Jason are salesmen for a computer company. They are on their way to a business lunch. They are meeting their boss, Jake, at a restaurant. The three of them will be having lunch with the CEO of the company.

Dialogue:
Jason: Come on, Rod. Hurry up or we'll be late for the big meeting.
Rod: Yeah, yeah. Keep your shirt on. I'm coming.
Jason: I hope this CEO isn't too serious. Keep one's shirt on.
Rod: William Hanson. You must remember to keep calm.
Rod: You can if you want to be fired. Or you can quit before he fires you.
Jason: Yeah, right.
Rod: I think that Jake and the CEO are here already. I think that's Jake's car.

Conversation 1 Transferring Funds

Introduction:
Jim has to pay some bills, but he doesn't have enough money in his account. He has to make a few changes. He then goes to the bank.

Dialogue:
Teller: Good morning. How can I help you?
Jim: Well, I have to move some of my funds around to pay some bills. I made an error in my bookkeeping.
Teller: Okay. Could I have your account number, please?
Jim: Oh, sure thing. Here's my debit card.
Teller: Are you going to transfer funds into this account?
Jim: Yes, I am.
Teller: Do you have another account at this branch?
Jim: Yes I do. I have a savings account in my name and a business checking account. Here are the numbers.
Teller: Okay. I have them on the screen now. How would you like to transfer the funds?
